

Director of Business Operations

Kenilworth Union Church, a large, vibrant church on Chicago's North Shore, founded in 1892, is seeking an individual to be its Director of Business Operations. The Director of Business Operations is responsible for managing the financial, facility, administrative, communications, and human resources services of the church. The Director reports to the Senior Minister and is the senior business person on staff. The Director oversees the church's operating budget of approximately $2 million/year and manages a staff of nine. For more information about the church and a detailed job description, see www.kuc.org.

Please email your resume to search@kuc.org.